Re: Culbreath v. Griffin et al. (7:17-cv-03406)(KMK)(LMS) – Withdrawal of Mark J. Pesce

Dear Judge Karas:

I respectfully request permission to withdraw as counsel for Plaintiff Jeffrey Culbreath (“Plaintiff”) in the above-referenced case. I represent Plaintiff in this matter with Kevin M. McDonough, Gregory S. Mortenson, Elizabeth C. Sahrner, and Julianne C. Brauer, my colleagues at Latham & Watkins LLP, and Ryan M. Lozar, of the Law Office of Ryan Lozar, P.C. As of October 15, 2019, I will no longer be associated with Latham & Watkins LLP.

Latham & Watkins LLP and Ryan M. Lozar will continue to represent Plaintiff in this case. Thus, my withdrawal will have no material effect on the schedule in this matter, and it will not cause prejudice to any party. In light of the foregoing, I respectfully request that the Court relieve the undersigned as counsel for Plaintiff and that the Court’s docket be amended to reflect my withdrawal as counsel.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Mark J. Pesce
